THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

October 21, 1976

Dear Mr. Chairman:

Thank you for your courtesy in forwarding to the President, under date of October 19, the letter from the students of the fifth grade class of the Camden Elementary School.

Please be assured that their letter will be called to the President's attention at the earliest opportunity.

With kind regards,

Sincerely,

Joseph S. Jenckes V
Special Assistant for Legislative Affairs

The Honorable James O. Eastland

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

October 26, 1976

Dear Girls and Boys:

It was good to receive your letter, and I was especially glad to learn of your love for our Nation. We live in exciting times, and it is encouraging to know that you and other young Americans are so deeply interested in our country's well-being. With your enthusiasm and support, we can all work together to build an even better America.

Thank you for taking the time to write. I am glad to have this opportunity to send you my best wishes for the years ahead.

Sincerely,

GERALD R. FORD
